

the 1990s, the number of people with a disability has increased in the United States (U.S. Census Bureau, 1997).

As a result of the increase in the number of people with a disability, the need for accessible information has become more acute. The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990 (Public Law 101-504) has provided a legal framework for the development of accessible information. The ADA requires that information be accessible to people with disabilities.

The ADA defines information as any material, regardless of the form or medium, that is used to convey information. This includes printed materials, audio recordings, video recordings, and computer files. The ADA requires that information be accessible to people with disabilities in the same way that it is accessible to people without disabilities.
