

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records and the role of the auditor in this process.

The second part of the document details the specific procedures and methods used to conduct the audit, including the selection of samples and the use of statistical techniques.

The final part of the document provides a summary of the findings and conclusions, along with recommendations for future improvements.